ORDER

The Court is in receipt of the parties' proposed protective order. ECF Nos. 83 and 84. The proposed protective order states that "All Confidential Material that is filed with any court and any pleadings, motions, exhibits, or other papers filed with any court referencing or containing Confidential Material shall be filed under seal to the extent of such Confidential Material, unless Plaintiffs are otherwise advised by [REDACTED] in writing, and kept under seal until further order of the Court." Id. ¶ 8. The Court's individual rules require parties to follow certain procedures when requesting approval for redacted or sealed filings. See Individual Practices in Civil Cases Rule IV.A.

Accordingly, by May 10, 2022, the parties shall file a revised proposed protective order that specifies that "Any party seeking to file redacted or entire documents under seal must obtain prior Court approval in accordance with Rule IV.A of this Court's Individual Practices in Civil Cases. The parties shall meet and confer in an effort to minimize the redaction or sealing request prior to submitting their request to the Court."
